

Published: Jan. 1, 2016, Kokomo Tribune [Page: A2]

http://www.kokomotribune.com/news/local_news/question-time-looking-forward-to/article_b9bddd6-b01f-11e5-88a1-efc11cb69bec.html

Question Time: Looking forward to 2016

What's on the horizon for you this year?

By Rob Burgess
Tribune night editor

[Editor's note: To participate in future queries, keep an eye on our Twitter and Facebook accounts.]

Happy New Year! Well, 2015 is over, and 2016 has just begun. So, we wanted to know: "What are you looking forward to the most about 2016?"

YOUR ANSWERS

"To feel the Bern." — Jesse C.K. Carlock

"To continue to work with children in our community to help them to overcome challenges and obstacles in their lives. Also to teach them the importance of education." — Brittiani Gillem

"More prosperity for people of Kokomo and hope for better business for PASTArrific and Bel Air Events." — Terry Yazdani

OUR ANSWERS

"My horoscope's been telling me good things are on the horizon. Clearly it means I will buy a winning scratch ticket or someone I don't even know has named me the recipient of their vast fortune. Seriously though, it's great to see the momentum in the city. I am looking forward to the opening of our new YMCA, seeing which entrepreneurs take a chance on our fine city next year and if funding makes it possible for us to continue expanding our trail system. Oh, and summer. Definitely summer." — Jill Bond

"Gosh, that's difficult to narrow down. One of my best friends is getting married in the spring and another is planning to move nearby. I may have a chance at crossing a European trip off of my bucket list. And of course, I may get to experience my first Indiana winter without a crazy snowpocalypse. For a cold-blooded creature such as I am, that's a big deal!" — Sarah Einselen

"Change. Growth. Here's to keeping things moving in 2016. Let's get it." — Rob Burgess

Rob Burgess, Tribune night editor, may be reached by calling 765-454-8577, via email at rob.burgess@kokomotribune.com or on Twitter at twitter.com/robaburg.